VENUE INFORMATION

Designed by architect Henry Ives Cobb, the Newberry was completed in the autumn of 1893. The building has gone through several renovations, the last of which was completed in 2018.

Steps from the Magnificent Mile and across from Chicago's oldest public park, the Newberry is a historic venue in the heart of the city. With our grand marble staircase, intricate architectural details, and versatile spaces, the Newberry is a distinctive gathering place for any occasion.
