How to Take Your Fantasy Draft Party to the Next Level

By Shelby Livingston | August 26, 2015 | Food & Drink

Make this football season one to remember by hosting an unforgettable fantasy draft party with good eats (and drinks) to match. We know you're busy scouting your draft picks, so leave the party food to the pros. Here are five high-end caterers up to the challenge.

Paramount Events

Paramount Events makes hosting worth your while with football season staples like a cheesy nacho bar, a pretzel station, and a gourmet hot dog bar. Or, snack on party classics like sandwiches, salads, and dips. Once you've drafted the perfect team, celebrate with a treat from the doughnut bar. And if you're starting in the a.m., Paramount Events will fix you up with your own Bloody Mary bar. Your league will thank you. 1932 W. Lake St., 773-880-8044
