

ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO - MICHIGAN AVENUE BUILDING

111 SOUTH MICHIGAN AVENUE • CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60603

VENUE INFORMATION

Built in 1898, Fullerton Hall was added to the north side of the museum's main-floor lobby in an area that had once been an open court. Louis Comfort Tiffany designed the exquisite stained-glass dome, which still illuminates the auditorium today. Located just off the Michigan Avenue lobby, the Women's Board Grand Staircase majestically welcomes your guests with stately polished-marble construction dating back to 1910. On the main floor, the sweeping staircase is encircled by the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries and Fullerton Hall; it rises with grace and grandeur to a sunlit space on the second level, surrounded by architectural fragments from some of Chicago's most legendary buildings.
